BRIEF

Will be the Trial of the Assassin of the President.

Evidence Piled Up by State

Against the Anarchist Czolgosz, Who Evinces But Little Interest in the Progress of the Case, Termination of Which Means His Speedy Death.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat.

Buffalo, Sept. 24.—The Czolgosz trial opened at 10 o'clock this morning and the prisoner looked brighter than at any time since he was arrested. He is beginning to show a desire to talk and it is supposed that he has a garage prepared, provided he is permitted to take the witness stand.

MANY WITNESSES

Gave Their Evidence Before the Court Today.

Buffalo, Sept. 24.—Many witnesses in the shooting of President McKinley were on the witness stand today, as was also Dr. Matthew Mann, who testified to the circumstances of the shooting. James Quackenbush, who was an eye witness of the shooting, gave a graphic story of the affair. He told two shots and saw the President struck. Witness saw Czolgosz standing before McKinley and firing at him. He then saw the assassin run to the floor by at which time the President fell and later on his drooping away.

TOLD ABOUT IT.

The Assassin Gave a Detailed Account of His Crime.

On direct examination by the district attorney Penney Mr. Quackenbush made a side-witness for the state. His testimony provided a genuine sensation. For the first time it was learned that the prisoner had made a complete statement in superintendent's office at police headquarters on the night of the shooting. For two hours while a howling mob raved in the streets of Buffalo, clamoring for the life of Czolgosz, the prisoner calmly and collectedly recited the details of the shooting. He talked freely and without reserve.

WILL MAKE A STATEMENT.

The Assassin Will be Given a Chance to Do So.

Buffalo, Sept. 24.—Francis O'Brien of the Coast Artillery testified that as Czolgosz was being led away he heard McKinley say, "Be easy with him boys."

Court was resumed by Justice White this afternoon with every indication that a verdict of "guilty" was charged in indictment, will be rendered before night. The prisoner declared his desire to make a statement in his own behalf and the district attorney will afford his opportunity at the proper time.

PROSECUTION RESTED

And the End of the Assassination Case is Close at Hand.

At 2:40 o'clock p. m., the prosecution rested its case.

GOOD RECORD

Of All the Details of the Shooting Being Compiled by the Trial.

Buffalo, Sept. 24.—Leon F. Czolgosz, when placed on trial charged with the murder of President William McKinley, entered a plea of "guilty," which was subsequently changed to "not guilty" by direction of the court. The work of securing the jury was then undertaken with a celerity that was amazing. Before the day was over the entire panel had been sworn, the jurors had listened to a description of the Temple of Music, where the crime occurred, had seen photographs of the interior of that structure and had been told by three surgeons what caused the death of the president and the effect of the assassin's shot upon the various organs of the body. They had also learned why the fatal bullet had not been located.

The presentation of the government's case began when Assistant District Attorney Haller began, with deliberation, to address the jury. He spoke very briefly, "We shall show,"

MRS. M'KINLEY

Is Improving Under the Care of Dr. Rixey.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Canton, Sept. 24.—Mrs. McKinley, under the care of Dr. Rixey is improving every day. The McKinley personal effects at the White House have all been packed and will arrive in Canton soon. Secretary Cortelyou is expected here soon to settle up President McKinley's estate and to probate the will which is supposed to be in his possession.

THE BOERS

Reported to be Retiring from Scenes of Victory.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat.

London, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from Durban, received here today, reports the defeat of a party of Boers south of Vryheid, in the southeastern Transvaal and also reports that "Lieutenant Ruddle's patrol has driven the Boers from Ukhahl, south of Vryheid. The Boers at Utrecht are retreating."

WALLS

Fell Upon Brave Firemen

Burying Them

Under Tons of Timbers and Brick.

One Victim was Killed and Two Others were Fatally Injured

And Seven More are Reported to Have Been Seriously Injured—Heavy Loss of Property Sustained.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Falling walls crushed the lives out of two firemen during the destruction by fire this morning of Found Brothers' Paint and Oil warehouse and it is believed that at least six of their comrades who are missing met the same fate. The dead are: Charles L. Corey, engineer; Henry O'Holleran, driver; Corey and O'Holleran were on a shed adjoining the blazing three story structure when the fall collapsed, burying them under tons of brick and charred timber. They were hurriedly dug out but lived only a few minutes after they were rescued. A search of the ruins is being made for the missing men.

LATER REPORT

Shows Three Fatally Crushed and Seven Seriously Injured.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Later reports show that the fire at Found Bros. place killed engineer Corey and fatally injured pipemen Donohue and John O'Holleran. They were caught under falling walls. Seven other firemen were seriously injured. The loss will aggregate $75,000.

Boer Sympathizers to Roosevelt. Chicago, Sept. 24.—At a meeting here of citizens in sympathy with the Boers, resolutions were adopted asking President Roosevelt to take such action as he thinks best to bring about a speedy termination of the war in South Africa. A committee was appointed to secure signatures to the resolutions, after which a mass meeting will be held at the auditorium and a committee appointed to carry the resolutions to Washington. At the meeting all the speakers scored Great Britain for her treatment of the Boers, especially women and children, who, it was claimed, are dying by the hundreds.

Seventh National Affairs. New York, Sept. 24.—Former President William H. Kimball of the failed Seventh National bank of this city, Gamaliel S. Rose, paying teller of the bank, and Frank P. Boor, junior member of the defunct firm of Henry Marquand & Company, bankers and brokers of this city, were arraigned before Judge Adams in the United States court on indictments found against them in connection with the failure of the Seventh National. The men appeared with counsel and were admitted to bail.

DEATH

Again Causes an Adjournment

Of the Court

That is Investigating Schley's Conduct.

Judge Jere Wilson, of Brooklyn Admiral's Counsel, is Dead.

Died in Washington This Morning from an Attack of Acute Indigestion.—The Texas' Commander's Story.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Washington, Sept. 24.—Judge Jere Wilson, of Schley's counsel is dead, and in consequence the Schley court of inquiry has adjourned. Judge Wilson died at the Shoreham at 11 o'clock this morning, from an attack of acute indigestion.

THE TRIAL

Will Continue Along in Spite of Attorney Wilson's Death.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Out of respect to the memory of Judge Wilson, the Schley court of inquiry adjourned after the first witness had been called today. Associate counsel Raynor says, however, that the hearing will go right along in spite of Wilson's death. Raynor and Schley have taken charge of all of Wilson's papers pertaining to the Schley equity. Judge Wilson was 73 years old and a brilliant lawyer. It is now reported that the immediate cause of death was uraemic poisoning. The death of Judge Wilson is a severe blow to the Schley interests. He had made a detailed study of the campaign and was celebrated for his skill in cross examination.

THE TEXAS

And the Part She Played in the Big Naval Battle.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The part played by the battleship Texas in the naval battle off Santiago July 3, 1898, in which the Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera was sunk, was the basis of the greater part of the proceedings in the Schley naval court of inquiry. Of the four witnesses examined three had been officers on board the Texas during the battle and two of them were new witnesses. These were Commander George C. Heitner, who was navigator on the Texas, and Commander Alex B. Bates, who was the chief engineer on that battleship. Commander Heitner, executive officer and the chief surviving officer of the ship since the death of Captain Philip, was recalled. The fourth witness was Commander Seaton Schroeder, executive officer on the Massachusetts and now governor of the island of Guam. The testimony was somewhat exciting, and it was especially so when Commander Heitner described the battle and the part the Texas had taken in it. He said when the Brooklyn made its leap at the beginning of the battle it had passed across the Texas' bow at a distance not to exceed 100 to 150 yards, and that at the command of Captain Philip the Texas had been brought to a dead stop. Engineer Bates testified that the starboard engines had been stopped and said he thought this also had happened to the port engines. Commander Heitner expressed opinion that three miles had been lost by this maneuver, and the fact that part of the machinery was deranged. He said he considered that the Texas was in greater danger when the Brooklyn crossed her bow than at any other time during the battle. On cross-examination Commander Heitner admitted having taken part in the preparation of the official naval department chart showing the positions at different times of the ships which participated in the battle. He said, according to this chart, the two ships were never nearer than 800 yards of each other. But, he contended, the chart was inaccurate, and he said he had only consented to it as a compromise. Commander Bates admitted that the official steam log of the Texas contained no record of the signal to reverse the engines. Commander Schroeder testified concerning the coal supply of the Massachusetts, which, he said, would have been sufficient for a blockade of from 16 to 20 days. The session closed with another animated controversy between counsel as to the policy of bringing Admiral Sampson's name into the trial.

Admiral Sampson Relieved. Washington, Sept. 24.—Rear Admiral Mortimer L. Johnson, commander of the Port Royal naval station, will resume command of the Boston yard on Oct. 1, relieving Admiral Sampson. Admiral Sampson will retire by age limit Feb. 9, 1902. He could retire before that if he wished, under the 40 years' service clause, on his own request, or he could apply for retirement to take effect immediately on account of poor health. However, as naval officers generally take pride in serving out their full term, it is probable that an extended leave of absence will keep Admiral Sampson on the active list until Feb. 9.

ROOSEVELT

Has His Talking Clothes On Again.

Takes Part in Discussions at Cabinet Meetings.

In the Trade Reciprocity Matter He Takes the Same View as Did President McKinley, His Predecessor.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Washington, Sept. 24.—Secretary Hay, Root, Long and Hitchcock were absent from today's cabinet meeting. Most of the time was devoted to a general discussion of departments with which the President wished to become familiar. President Roosevelt does more talking at the cabinet meetings than his predecessor did, taking part in every discussion that comes up. President McKinley was in the habit of allowing the cabinet members to do practically all of the talking, forming therefrom his views of the subject under discussion and framing his future course accordingly. The most important subject at today's cabinet meeting was trade reciprocity. The new President is taking the same view as did President McKinley.

ROOSEVELT

Pays a Compliment to Ohio National Guard.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Columbus, Sept. 24.—Gov. Nash today received a letter from President Roosevelt, congratulating Ohio upon her military, praising the officers and the men of the O. N. G. for the magnificent manner in which they handled the crowds at President McKinley's funeral at Canton.

MEMORIAL

Monument to the Late President

Will be Built Through Popular Subscriptions,

Under Management of an Organization to be Chartered Under Title of "McKinley Memorial Association."

Cleveland, Sept. 24.—Initial steps have been taken here towards the erection at Canton, through popular subscription, of what is hoped will be a fitting and magnificent memorial of the late President McKinley. At a conference attended by Senator Hanna, Judge William R. Day of Canton and Colonel Myron T. Herrick, it was decided to take charge of the work. It is proposed to have as members of this body representative citizens from all the various states of the Union. The organization will be chartered under the laws of Ohio, and will probably be known as "The McKinley Memorial Association." It is proposed to locate the headquarters of the commission in this city, and to have the organization perfected within a week or 10 days. Those interested in the matter express the belief that Congress will at its next session make a liberal appropriation towards the erection of the monument.

TELLS

The Story of the Steel Strike.

Shaffer Talks

Freely About the Inside Facts of Struggle.

Circular Has Been Mailed to All the Districts Which are Interested.

The Failure of the Strike Attributed to Lack of Money, Desertions and a Lack of Public Approval.

Pittsburg, Sept. 24.—The newspaper press has been handed an advance copy of the statement by President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association, giving a history of the late strike of steel and tin workers from its inception, and the terms of the settlement. The circular will be mailed to all districts at once. President Shaffer says in the circular that, the statements contained therein give a fair and truthful account of occurrences leading to and comprising a settlement of the strike. In part the circular is as follows:

"As our strike advanced we were confident of winning until the newspapers deliberately and maliciously published statements which were replete with lies. Our people began to doubt and upbraid; some who had been officials deserted, and afterward, like J. D. Hickey of Milwaukee, accepted the terms of the trust and scabbed. Hundreds who dared not sleep at home went to other places, and in nearly every mill the trust decided to run were many A. A. men from striking mills. We knew our cause would be lost, but proceeded, feeling sure we could win if support could be secured for the faithful strikers. The American Federation gave us not 1 cent. The report that financial help came from the national lodge of the mine workers is absolutely false—we received nothing.

"Perceiving the lack of money, loss of public approval, desertion by hundreds of our own people and neglect by other organizations would render it impossible to gain a decisive victory, we endeavored to save what we could. I arranged for Mr. Campers of the American Federation of Labor to meet Mr. Morgan to effect a settlement. Mr. Morgan gave up his vacation, went to New York and waited for Mr. Campers, who failed to appear, nor has he since explained why he neglected our interests."

The Settlement.

Mr. Shaffer here reviews the general fruitless peace conferences held between trust officials and the labor leaders. He continues: "We waited for the coal miners and other men to be called out. They were willing to come, as thousands assured us, but they have not been called and the trust was more sure that with other organized labor bodies against us we must be defeated. Our people became discouraged; they sent letters and telegrams asking the board to settle. That body gave full power to the national officers and the latter requested your president to seek a conference. He was successful after many difficulties. The conference was held in New York, Sept. 14, and the subjoined settlement made: "American Tin Plate—First, scale shall be the prices agreed upon at Cleveland and found in scale book; second, this contract is between the A. A. and the A. T. P. company, the latter being a distinct and separate company in itself; third, the company reserves the right to discharge any employee who shall, by interference, abuse or constraint, prevent another from peaceably following his vocation without reference to connection with labor organizations; fourth, nonunion mills shall be represented as such, no attempt made to organize, no charters granted, old charters retained by the men if they desire; fifth, individual agreements shall be made for mills of improved character until they are developed, when scales shall be made to govern; sixth, scale is signed for mills at 91wood, Ind. (City, Laughlin), Mid-dletown, Ind. (Fakon), Gas City, Anderson, Ind., Joliet, New Kensington (two mills), Atlanta, Ind., Connells-ville, Newcastle (two mills), Lisbon, Johnstown, Muskegon, Cannelonsburg, LaBelle, Canal Dover; seventh, agreed that the company shall not hold prejudice against employees by reason of their membership with the A. A.; eighth, this agreement is to remain in force three years from July 1, 1901, but terminable at 90 days' notice from either party on or after Oct. 1, 1902. (This clause to be voted upon.) "Sheet Steel company—Scale as printed is signed for mills of last year but Hyde Park and Canal Dover,

"Steel Hoop company—Scale as printed signed for mills signed for last year."

Mr. Schaffer closed by saying he is willing to resign if the members think he is inefficient and incapable.

German-British Dispute.

Tien Tsin, Sept. 24.—A railroad dispute, similar to the recent Anglo-Russian misunderstanding here, has arisen at Tonka, where Saturday last the German military authorities flagged out a portion of the railroad property and placed it under a guard of troops. The British objected to this and marched a British guard to the disputed territory. The matter has been referred to the German and British generals.

Anarchist Editor Held.

Berlin, Sept. 24.—Otto Pauer, the editor of Neues Leben, the anarchist sheet which reappeared Saturday after its publication had been suspended for some time, has been arrested, and the issue, which was devoted chiefly to articles in connection with the assassination of President McKinley, has been confiscated.

CAMPAIGN

In Ohio Will be a Very Short One.

Democrats Will Only Have Nine Days to Fight

If the Propositions New Made Are Adhered to—Check-book Dick Confers With Republican Leaders.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Columbus, Sept. 24.—State chairman Dick is here today conferring with Republican leaders regarding a new date for the opening of the Ohio campaign and it will not be earlier than October 12, and may be as late as October 19, or only two weeks and two days before the election. If the latter date should be selected and Democratic committee sticks to its declaration that it will not open the campaign for a week after the Republican event they would have just nine days in which to make their fight.

MISSISSIPPI

Secretary of State Dies from Pneumonia.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Jackson, Miss., Sept. 24.—Secretary of state Power, of Mississippi, is dead here of pneumonia. He contracted the disease while attending the Knights Templar convocation at Louisville. Col. Power was Grand Secretary of the Masons for 33 years and the Nestor of the Mississippi Press.

TAMMANY

Is to be Fought by a Fusion Crowd.

Convention Now Being Held in New York City.

An Anti-Tammany Ticket of Nine Republicans and Eleven Democrats Goes Into the Fight in the City.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. New York, Sept. 24.—The Republican city convention meets in the Grand Central Palace this afternoon and will nominate Seth Low, representative for mayor of New York. Edward M. Groot, Democrat, will be named for controller and W. Travers Jerome, Democrat, for district attorney. Low and Groot head the ticket agreed upon by the anti-Tammany forces of New York. The Anti-Tammany ticket will be made up of eleven Democrats and nine Republicans.

FORTUNE

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. New York, Sept. 24.—A World special says that Nath Cusack, who died recently in Washington, and who was an old friend of President Roosevelt, has left Alice, the President's oldest daughter, $100,000 by his will.

Wedded in a Church at Toledo Today.

Lecture by the Rev. Sims Last Night was Largely Patronized.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference Held at Grace M. E. Church Last Evening was a Pleasing Event.

Today at one of the Polish Catholic churches in Toledo Miss Henrietta Polaski was united in wedlock to Louis French. Both are residents of south Lima, being members of St. John's parish. They will return here tomorrow for future residence. Both have many friends, who will congratulate them.

Tin fruit cans 45c a dozen at Crossley Bros., 715 south Main street.

A large number enjoyed Rev. G. W. Sims' lecture at the south Lima Christian church last night, upon the subject of "Social Sinners." The lecturer discussed social abuses in an amusing but convincing manner.

Rev. Sims a witty speaker his laughable humor carrying with it teachings of worth. Last night while holding his audience in a pleasant mood he spoke at length but at no time was the subject dull, the audience for the greater part of the time, being delighted with a continuous flow of wit. Mr. Sims is also an eloquent speaker of rare oratorical attainments. The lecture last night was a complete financial success. It is quite probable he will be requested to lecture again upon another of his laughable subjects.

Mrs. Anna Taftlinger, residing on McPherson avenue, entertained friends last night with a grotesque masquerade party. The rivalry in absurdity of costume was close. During the evening refreshments were served. Many pleasant features made the evening enjoyable.

Last night the fourth quarterly conference was held at Grace M. E. church, a large number attending. Much important business was transacted. The church was found to be in a flourishing condition. A testimonial of appreciation for the work Miss Wilcox, the deaconess, has accomplished in south Lima was given. The honor was gracefully acknowledged by the deaconess. While not certainly known whether she will be returned by the conference all earnestly hope she will be. It is difficult to make a just estimate of the good she has done, however, her efforts are appreciated. An effort will be made to have her continued in the field she has advantageously developed. Before adjournment officers of the church for the ensuing year were elected. All are sanguine of even greater success in the coming year than in the past.

Rev. G. W. Sims, pastor of the south Lima Christian church, left this morning for Postoria, from where he will go to his home at Tiffin. Upon his return he will be accompanied by his family who will make south Lima their future home.

H. A. Bishop, accompanied by his wife returned home last night from a week's visit at the Pan-American.

C. R. Reese, of Second street, has gone to Pontiac, Ill., for a visit.

G. F. Crawford is suffering from a crushed foot injured several days ago. Frank Wilson is here from Ada for a few days stay.

William Myers from Ada, is here for a visit with friends.

M. C. Ricketts is home from attending a reunion of his regiment at Camden.

Dr. J. E. Mell in company with N. Hall, left today for Michigan, where they will spend some time recuperating their health.

Mrs. William Keifer on Forest avenue, has been informed by her brother that he will leave today for the Philippines, where he with several others who have organized a company which will establish a newspaper in some city upon the islands not definitely decided upon. They have considerable capital which they purpose to put to advantage believing they will succeed.

Mrs. C. H. Greenland and children, of south Elizabeth street, left yesterday for a visit with her relatives in Lafayette, Ind.

Mrs. John Darby and children, of west Vine street, left today on an extended visit with relatives in Lafayette, Ind.

Mrs. F. D. Lea, of south Elizabeth street, is the guest of friends in Nevada, O.

Mrs. Wm. Hooks, of west Vine street, will return home tonight after a visit with friends in Colton.

Yesterday evening Paul Wallace, an eleven year old boy narrowly escaped from what might have been a fatality. He was attempting to climb into a wagon driven rapidly on south Main street. Running along between the wheels clinging to the side board he lost his hold, and fell, the rear wheel passing over his hips. It is remarkable no bones were broken. With the exception of painful bruises, he was uninjured. It was some time before the boy could walk to his home.

Dean McKittrick, residing west of here while calling upon friends in south Lima, left his rig hitched on south Central avenue. Returning the vehicle was gone. A search was made, and in the meantime the equipment was returned to a place near its former position. A valuable robe was however missing. At present it is unknown who took the article. Mr. McKittrick is unable to decide whether he is the victim of a practical joke or a thief.

Bert Crossen, on Reece avenue, who was at Canton, the day the late president was buried was near the depot when great excitement was caused by some unknown person firing at a Canon mail carrier named Willett, who is said to be the first person to give the correct name of Czolgosz. It was the impression of those present that the shooting was done by a friend of Czolgosz, who made his escape in the crowd. The bullet passed through Willett's hat.

Local friends of Carl Rutledge, will be pleased to learn he is now intercollegiate secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association being located at Philadelphia.

Frank Ricketts, employed at Cramer's drug store, south Main St., is unable to attend his duties, being confined to his home by illness.

Do not forget that Colonel Kilbourne, the Democratic candidate for governor, will be in attendance at the Allen county fair on Thursday, September 26. Everyone in Allen county should see this man of the people during his visit to Allen county. d&wt

And Hill Will Speak in This State
During the Campaign Now About to be Opened.

Republican Campaign Will be Opened at Delaware and the Democratic Opening Will be Held at Bucyrus.

There will be no abandonment of a speaking campaign in Ohio on account of the death of President McKinley. After the President had been shot, says a dispatch from Columbus, Democratic Chairman Daugherty proposed to Republican Chairman Dick that as an expression of Ohio's grief there be no speaking campaign this fall. Chairman Dick declined the proposition.

But upon the death of the president Chairman Dick hastened to annul the date of the opening of the republican campaign which was scheduled for Delaware today. Chairman Daugherty, also, on the day of McKinley's death, cancelled the date for the opening of the democratic campaign, which was to occur at Bucyrus, September 28.

At the same time Mr. Daugherty announced that he was still ready to declare of all speaking and would make no arrangements for public meetings until the republican committee should take some definite step to have a speaking campaign, thus making a democratic speaking campaign dependent upon the action of the republican committee.

Now that the last rites have been performed by a mourning nation over the remains of their fallen chief, it is announced on the authority of Chairman Dick that arrangements will be made next week for a new date for the opening of the republican campaign. It will be at Delaware.

It is likely that the democrats will fix upon October 12 as the date for their opening. Thus, at best, the speaking campaign will be shorter this year than any previous year in the states' history.

Following the opening the republicans expect to bring to the state the biggest speakers they have in the country and the democrats will have among their orators Bryan and Hill.

KARG
Is Having His Troubles at Findlay.

Contractor Who Built Garfield School Had a Strike to Contend With.

Ten young men employed by Contractor Karg in clearing the old Methodist church site on west Sandusky street, threw up their jobs when they were paid off Saturday night and refused to work for the wages they had been receiving, says the Findlay Courier. They claimed that the understanding that existed between themselves and their employer, was that they were to receive one dollar a day in compensation for their labors.

The amounts they received Saturday night ranged from seventy to ninety cents a day and upon refusal to their demands for the dollar a day rate, they notified the foreman they would go out on a strike. Little or no attention, whatever, was paid their actions by the contractor, and a number of new men were hired to fill the vacant positions this morning so that the little difficulty has not impeded the progress of the clearing work in the least.

THE STAGE.

The Murray Comedy Co.

The Murray Comedy Company opened their week's engagement at the Faurst last night with "The Black Flag," which was greeted by a packed house. The play was finally staged and well presented, and the enthusiastic audience showed their appreciation by frequent applause.

The leading parts were taken by Mr. Warren Catterlin and Miss Blanche Leighton, who played their really difficult parts most creditably. The comedy part of Lazarus, the money-lender, was taken by Mr. Jap Rentrow, who got all the fun possible out of a funny part.

The illustrated songs by Clara Hazel Lamb were repeatedly encored, as were those of Mr. Rentrow and Franklyn Whitman. The sleight-of-hand tricks of Burhart, the magician, caught on immediately, and the black-face turn of the Cullenbine Children were funny in the extreme. What promises to be a successful week was opened most auspiciously by this capable company, who tonight present "Nature's Noblemen" with an entire new line of clever specialties.

In Advance of Old Methods

Is the Means

Employed to Perform Engineering Feats.

Big Bridge Hauled a Mile and Then Dropped Into Place.

Supt. C. M. Overly Performs a Fine Piece of Work in Setting New C. H. & D. Bridge Over Jackson's Cut.

The putting in of the big single span C. H. & D. bridge at Jackson's cut between Milton and Custer Sunday afternoon was accomplished without a hitch in the proceedings and demonstrates to what extent modern engineering has developed. The bridge in question was built entirely at Milton, a mile north of where it was to be located, and as soon as every stringer and beam was in place, Supt. Overly announced that the huge structure was ready to move. At 3:29 Sunday afternoon the last train passed over the old trestle, and after it left Milton the bridge was gently moved from the side of the track to trucks on the rails. An engine was then hitched to the bridge and it was drawn to the point of location.

It passed over the trestle at the cut, was hoisted up on jacks and then the old supports taken from under, letting the new bridge drop gradually down on to the stone piers. At 8:45 word was again sent over the wires that the cut was bridged and ready for trains. Not the least interruption to traffic was occasioned and the big job was successfully completed. To build a bridge a mile from its location, haul it into place and make it fit on its foundation within a fraction of an inch all inside of five hours, would seem to be a task next to impossible, but it was accomplished with apparent ease.

New Yards at Toledo.
It is said upon pretty good authority that the C. H. & D. railroad is to have within a very short time a new yard which will be one of the finest in the city as well as the finest along the line of the road, says the Toledo Times. During the past month the officials of the operating and engineering department of the road have paid frequent visits to this city, and it is now learned that the object of these visits was for the purpose of locating these new yards. It is said that while it has not been definitely decided, yet it is quite probable that these yards will be located at Bates' Sliding, three miles south of Rossford. It is said that options have been secured on land adjoining the company's present right of way and that within a few days the deal will be closed. The matter has been kept quiet up to this time owing to the fact that the property had not been secured. A double track is also to be put in from Bates' Sliding to the Lake Shore tracks, where the accident occurred last Monday night so that accidents of that character will not occur again.

When the new yard is completed it is believed that the old one at Rossford will be abandoned except for ore, lake coal and elevator business. The Toledo Railway & Terminal company will also put in a new yard near Bates and the grading for the yards is already in progress. The yards are to be located between the C. H. & D. tracks and the river and will have ten tracks.

Two Weddings.
There will be two weddings among the boys in the C. H. & D. yard office next week. C. N. O'Connor, car record clerk is to marry a Bowling Green lady next Saturday, and Jim Querk, southbound clerk, will be married on Wednesday. The boys are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the approaching events.—Toledo Times.

Running Them Down.
C. H. & D. detectives have about run to earth a gang of thieves who have been making a land office steal of brass from all along the line. The gang is supposed to be an organized one. It has been known to jack up cars standing on sidings and take all the brass from the journal boxes. In this manner many cars were disabled and the employees put to great inconvenience and the company to heavy expense. Interruption of traffic has often resulted, and serious delay worked the loss in this respect being much heavier than by brass taken. This offense is punishable by a term in the penitentiary. The thieves have collected the brass from many freight cars and converted it quickly into money, as junk dealers purchase it readily, not knowing where it comes from. Brass appears to be a saleable commodity, as many factories have been broken into and thefts of brass trimmings and fixtures made in wholesale quantities. A gang is now in the Miami county jail awaiting investigation by the grand jury.

New Gould Line.
A line to Indianapolis is the latest project which the Goulds are said to have under consideration. This, it is claimed, is very apt to come up at the meeting of the stockholders at Toledo on the 8th.

At present, the road handles quite a business over the Lake Erie & Western into Indianapolis out of Toledo, and also from Western points. At one time, the Lake Erie was a part of the Wabash system when Jay Gould was the controlling spirit of the property. The general opinion is that the Wabash will reach out to Indianapolis. The only matter in doubt is as to when the Goulds will take the step.

According to what appears to be an authentic report, the proposed route is from Huntington through Marion and Elwood. This would pass through the heart of the gas belt and best manufacturing district of the state of Indiana. It would also strike some of the best towns in the state.

General Notes.
Traveling passenger agent E. L. Brown of the Clover Leaf, was in the city yesterday evening calling upon local agents.

T. J. Madigan, another official of the Clover Leaf, holding the position of acting roadmaster at Frankfort, Ind., has resigned.

There were two sections of west bound Pennsylvania limited No. 5 this morning, the occasion being extra travel to California to the Episcopal convention.

J. D. Rauch, mechanical engineer at the L. E. & W. shops, accompanied by his wife, left this morning for Logansport, Ind., to attend the marriage of his brother.

Yardmaster W. J. Richmond, of the P. Ft. W. & C. local yards is confined to his home on north Elizabeth street by an attack of sickness. Conductor Beadle, of Ft. Wayne, is filling his place.

A new office has been created on the Penna. Lines, that of fourth Vice President, and J. J. Turner has been appointed to the position. With his family, and accompanied by C. H. Walton, Superintendent of the Terminal Division at Chicago, and Supt. McKim, Mr. Turner made a trip over this division yesterday on a special train.

Maurice Martin, of St. Joe, Mo., is visiting his brothers, engineer Eugene Martin and Thos. Martin of the L. E. & W.

Passenger conductors Wm. Crist and Billie Hooper, of the L. E. & W. are off their runs attending the Pan-American. John Darby is on Crist's run and Thos. O'Donnell is on Hooper's run.

C. H. & D. Notes.

Grant Long is acting as night yard master during the illness of P. C. Fritz.

J. E. Pitcher, yardmaster at Delphos, is off on account of illness and Jacob Deatrich is doing his work.

Supt. Goring, of the Clover Leaf, formerly of the C. H. & D. dispatcher's office, is sick and confined to his bed at the Phelan hotel in Delphos.

Night yard clerk, O. D. Sealf is confined to his bed with an attack of typhoid fever. Paddy Murphy is looking after the clerical duties of the office mean while.

F. G. Fritz, night yard master, and a brother-in-law of Assistant Superintendent Shoemaker, has been wrestling with a stubborn fever for some time and is now at the hospital receiving treatment.

North bound passenger train No. 10 was several hours late last night, owing to engine 106 blowing out a cylinder head south of Dayton. The train was due here at 9 o'clock, but did not arrive until 11:15. Engineer Ike Reid was in the cab.

Passenger agent Frank Burkhardt was at his old home in Cridersville yesterday evening, his visit being to see his brother, C. W. Burkhardt, who has just had a successful operation performed for the removal of a cancer, the growth being located just beneath the right ear. Mr. Burkhardt is the justice of Shawnee township.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen's excursion to Dayton occurs day after tomorrow, Thursday, and from present indications it will be one of the most successful of the season. The railroad boys always do things right and the company sees to it that they have everything of the best. The special train will leave Lima at 7:00 a. m., and is due to arrive at the home at 9:35. Returning it will leave the home at 6:15 and Dayton at 6:40. A rate of $1.25 is offered from Lima.

Day of the Allen County Fair

Sees the Life

And Activity of Getting Ready.

Tomorrow Will be a Day of Delight for the Children

And the Principal Features on the Program were Arranged for the Especial Benefit of the Little Ones.

The first day of the county fair is not expected to draw a very big crowd of sight-seers as the day is, as a rule, given up to putting things in apple order for the rest of the week. Such is the case today which sees the opening of the Allen county fair and everything about the grounds is bustle and bustle, proclaiming one of the most attractive and successful events in the history of the association.

The confining of exhibits to Allen county will not interfere with a large and fine display of stock and produce and the exhibits in art hall promise to be on a much more gorgeous scale than ever before.

The promise of fine weather is also encouraging to the management, and while a little rain during the night would improve conditions, none at all would be better than the beginning of a down pour liable to last for several days and thus destroy every prospect of financial success. The fair will practically start off tomorrow when the grounds will overflow with children from town and country, released from their studies for one short but delightful holiday. The program, too, has been arranged particularly for them, one attractive feature being the pony parade at 1:30. Any pony in the county can be entered free and prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded the driver of the prettiest decorated turnout.

The balloon ascension will be another drawing card to attract both young and old, while the speed ring offering three events will catch the lover of harness performers. Prizes of $300 each are offered for the winners in the 2:40 trot and 2:20 pace, while a five-eighths of a mile dash will console those who prefer to watch the runners.

The management has tried every means and spared no expense to improve the fair this year and they are certainly deserving of a liberal patronage.

President Rusler of the fair board stated today that there never were as many horses at the Allen county fair as there are this year. All of the old stalls have been filled and a number of new ones are being built and in spite of the additional ones two herds of animals have been sent away. The number of fine heavy farm horses on the grounds is exceptionally fine. All of the race entries have been killed.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Tudor, of Van Wert, was in the city today, coming here to meet his daughter Bessie who has just returned from London, where she has been for several months studying under Kandegger, the best interpreter of oratorio music in the world. After a few days at home she goes to Cincinnati where she has a position in one of the leading churches.

Mrs. W. B. VanNote, of west Market street, is home from Cincinnati, where she has been for a few days.

Mr. E. V. Wells and son Donald, of west Spring street, came home yesterday from Buffalo.

Harry A. Georgi, the south Main street Art dealer and wife, have returned home after spending a two weeks vacation, visiting parents and friends at Dayton.

Was the Verdict in the Case Against Mrs. Huber.

Mrs. Bessie Huber, who was charged by M. E. Boyzell with deliberately destroying a vine which grew over a window of a house owned by the complainant had her hearing before Justice Duffield this morning and was discharged as not guilty. The defendant proved that the vine was broken down by a woman Mrs. Huber had employed to help her move.

ONCE

More the Chance is Offered

To the Voters

To Decide the High School Question.

Resolution Passed to Submit the Proposition Again
This Fall.

Board is Divided on the Question of Postponing the Election of the New Additions Recently Provided for.

Ten members of the board of education responded to the roll call last night including president Sprague,
clerk Catt, Messrs Frederick, Spyker, Donahue, McClain, Fenwick, Spyker,
Mrs. Vicary and Miss Disman.

The resignation of Miss Nellie Nier was presented, and it brought out some decided opinions from Mr.
Prophet on the question. He said that he regretted to see any of the teachers fall into this loose way of doing business. When she accepts a position as teacher she obligates herself to teach one year. There is but one way for us to dissolve this relationship and that is when she resigns.
We have been very liberal for when a teacher has taught three months and thinks she can better herself, we have always accepted her resignation. But here is a teacher who has obligated herself to teach and we have accepted her. Now she assumes to break the engagement without teaching one term, and the practice is both vicious and demoralizing to the schools. I am opposed to dissolving the contract under one term, and while a teacher may be able to get a dollar more, she ought to be made to understand that there is a contract to live up to. I will vote to accept the resignation, but when it comes to paying her for such service as she has rendered, I am opposed. Mrs. Vicary moved to accept the resignation of Miss Nier without any part of salary being paid, and in that form it carried.

A communication from P. L. Metzger, acting as agent, informed the board that the rent of the building on the corner of Forest avenue and Second street, would be raised from $6 to $8 1/2 per month. This announcement brought out a discussion of considerable length which branched off from the real point at issue and centered in the question of renegeing the city, so as to do away with some of the colonies. Mr. Donahue moved that a wall map, showing the location of all the buildings be purchased for the board's convenience. Carried.

Dr. Bates made a motion at the close of the discussion, that a committee of three be appointed in connection with the superintendent to re-district the city and report at the next meeting. The chair appointed Dr.
Bates, Mr. Donahue and Mrs. Vicary.

By an oversight the manual which goes with Williams' chemistry was not adopted with the other text books and after a considerable waste of eloquence the clerk was ordered to make the purchase of the necessary books. The book question led off into other avenues of discussion, in which Mr. Donahue took part, the latter stating that he had been abused by his constituents on account of the change in readers, and when Superintendent Miller reported that the books for the use of the teachers in musical instruction had not arrived, but were on the road, Mr. Donahue expressed himself as not being willing to pay a music teacher when the pupils were not getting any benefit from it.

The request of Supt. Miller to know just what had been done toward the erection of the proposed new additions to west Spring and Elizabeth streets buildings offered an opening for another discussion and a majority of the members took advantage of it. Clerk Catt led off by stating that he was one of several members who had decided that it would be unwise to build the addition at this time, and was in favor of buying lots and erecting temporary buildings. Dr. Bates replied that it was too late to make the change as the architects had been employed and the plans practically accepted. Mr.
Sprague agreed with him.

Mr. Donahue took sides with Mr.
Catt and said that he was willing to vote against the new additions for this year. Mr. Prophet demanded to hear something like a definite report from the committee so he could determine just how the matter stood.
Mr. McClain, chairman of the building committee replied that the new advertisement for bids was ready for publication. It was the opinion of Mr.

Prophet that it was too late to begin the additions and for that reason favored the suggestion offered by Mr.
Catt.

Supt. Miller saw that the situation was growing dangerous and begged that the board would not depart from its former determination to add an addition to the west Spring street building, as he must have relief, and the contractors had informed him that the rooms would be ready for use within 60 days.

Mr. McClain agreed with the contractors and Mr. Spyker said he wanted to see the addition to the Elizabeth street building constructed without any further delay. The discussion was somewhat informal and while there was a difference of opinion plainly expressed, the matter was left standing and no change from former conclusions made.

Miss Disman threw a bomb shell into the camp when she offered a resolution providing for the presentation of the high school question again at the fall election. Her idea was to provide for the erection of a $75,000 building leaving it to the voters to decide as to where it should be located. The motion to adopt the resolution was carried and the citizens of Lima will now have a local question to deal with in which politics will cut but little if any figure. Presented in this new form there is a possibility of the proposition carrying.

Mrs. Vicary suggested an increase of $10 per month in the salary of Mrs.
Ballard, the primary teacher, but an amendment of Mr. Catt to make it $5 was carried, and she will hereafter receive $45 per month.

The following bills were reported by the finance committee and ordered

If the Allegations Concerning the Discharge of an Employee are Found to be True.

The prosecution of a prominent merchant of this city for violation of the law which requires employers to retain the services of members of the Ohio National Guard regardless of the necessity of their absence from duty at such time when the National Guard is in camp or in active duty is promised by Captain Thomas Morrison, commanding Co. K, of the Second regiment. It is alleged that when the Second regiment was called out to attend the funeral of President McKinley at Canton, one member of Co. K was discharged by his employer for responding to that call to duty. The young man has reported the case to Capt. Morrison and the latter has investigated it and states that it will be prosecuted.

The penalty for discharging a member of the National Guard for being absent on duty with his regiment is a fine of $1,000 and six months imprisonment.

The employer referred to states emphatically that the young man was discharged for other and sufficient causes and not because he went to

YALE'S BICENTENARY.

Elaborate Preparations For Entertaining Her Friends.

MANY INTERESTING FEATURES.

Yale Women Will Participate In the Torchlight Procession—Amphitheater For the Dramatic Performance to Be Brilliantly Illuminated—A Striking Feature In Decorations.

There will be 1,500 flags on the college building for the bicentennial celebration of Yale university at New Haven, beginning on Oct. 20 and lasting four days, says the New York Sun. Old South Middle, the last of the famous brick row on the old campus, is to have special decorations, and at night Professor John C. Schwab, secretary of the executive committee of the bicentennial celebration, says Old South Middle will be a blaze of light. The town will be covered with huge posters, calling attention to the celebration. They will be of special design, all in blue, the Yale color. The design comes from Grosvenor Atterbury of New York, a Yale man, who has already contributed much time and money for the success of this Yale festival.

It has been announced that Yale women are to have a part in the torchlight procession which is to be one of the features of the bicentennial week. Those so favored are members of the Yale Art school and the musical department of the university. They will wear long gowns of brown material and hoods that will completely envelop their heads. To one function of the festivities, however, women, except the women students of the university, will not be admitted. That is the student dramatic performance which is to take place on the old campus at 8 o'clock on Tuesday night, Oct. 22. There is so large a demand for seats from the student body and from old "grads" that there will be no room for women visitors. This announcement is made by Professor Schwab.

The amphitheater in which the students will act on the campus will be right in the center and will inclose one of the elm trees. The electric lights which will illuminate this amphitheater will radiate from this elm all over the inclosure. The stage will be 50 by 50, and the amphitheater will accommodate about 6,000 persons. The parts that go to make up the amphitheater have been constructed, and all that is needed is to put them together.

It is expected that from two-fifths to one-half of the 12,000 living graduates of the university will come to the bicentennial. That means that from 5,000 to 6,000 Yale graduates will be in New Haven. Hundreds of these will bring their families, making the number of Yale people in attendance something like 10,000.

There is an army of Yale admirers who will want to witness the celebration and this will probably bring the total number of visitors up to 15,000. President Roosevelt has promised to come. Professor Schwab said that 150 college presidents had signified their intention of attending the bicentennial, this not including the delegations selected by colleges throughout the world who have already written that they will be on hand to help Yale celebrate. Among others Governor McLean of Connecticut and his staff will be the guests of Yale.

The bicentennial committee has received from Paris 6,000 orange colored paper lanterns. About 2,000 more will be needed, and Secretary Schwab has cabled to Paris for them. These lanterns are two feet in diameter and about two feet high. The committee would have preferred blue colored lanterns, but the effect was not satisfactory. These orange colored lights will be strung along College street on both sides, from Osborn hall to Battell chapel. Between the lights will be garlands of green and festoons of blue bunting. The front of Osborn hall and Vanderbilt hall will be colored with orange colored lights and garlands. An immense flag will be placed over Phelps gateway to designate that spot as the main entrance to the campus. The plan of private home decorations will be much similar to the general plan of decoration for the college buildings, but each house will have some striking feature in color and effect.

One of the striking features of the celebration in the line of decoration will be the succession of beacons or torches outlining the interior of the campus. They will be twelve or fifteen feet high, surmounted by a specially designed flat vessel of terra cotta or metal, the designing and making of which are in the hands of Pierre Jay and the architect, Charles A. Platt of New York. In this shallow dish will stand a wire basket containing cotton waste soaked in a combustible material that will be lighted on the evenings of the celebration, giving out a beautiful mellow light.

The chemists of the university have been long experimenting with the necessary ingredients for these combustible lanterns in order to insure an effective light and at the same time avoid disagreeable odors and too large an amount of smoke. It is thought that they have succeeded in securing the desired combination, and preparations have already been made for mixing the necessary solids and liquids in due proportion and, if possible, adding chemicals required to produce effective colors. These beacons during the day will be filled with colored leaves or large bunches of evergreens and both by day and by night will effectively set off the entrance and passageways on the historic campus.

NEW G. A. R. CHIEF.

Military Career of Judge Eli Torrance of Minnesota.

Judge Eli Torrance of Minnesota, the new commander in chief of the Grand Army, came of patriotic stock, his ancestors having served in the colonial and Revolutionary wars and in every subsequent war, including that for the preservation of the Union, says the Chicago Tribune. Although under military age, he was on June 26, 1861, enrolled as a private in Company A, Ninth Pennsylvania reserves, and for almost three years carried a musket, participating in all the battles in which his regiment was engaged, except when disabled by wounds. His regiment was among those that suffered severe losses in battle.

On the 11th of May, 1864, he was discharged with his regiment at Pittsburg by reason of expiration of term of service and on July 9 following re-enlisted in the service as second lieutenant of Company K, One Hundred and Ninety-third Pennsylvania volunteer infantry, and on Oct. 15, 1864, was transferred to the Ninety-seventh regiment, Pennsylvania volunteer infantry, and assigned to duty at Baltimore, where he had the honor of guarding the body of the martyred president when he lay in state at Baltimore. On June 17, 1865, having barely reached his majority, he was finally discharged from the service by reason of the close of the war.

During the years since he joined the G. A. R. he has held the following important positions: Judge advocate, department of Minnesota, 1889; commander of John A. Davlin post, 1890; Judge advocate, department of Minnesota, 1894; commander, department of Minnesota, 1895; Judge advocate general to Commander in Chief Gobin, 1897-8; Judge advocate general to James A. Sexton and W. C. Johnson, 1898-9; Judge advocate general to Commander in Chief Albert B. Shaw, 1899-1900. He also served as a member of the national council of administration and on important committees of the national encampments.

ANCIENT MEXICAN MINES.

Interesting Discovery by an Exploring German Rhinologist.

Dr. Gustav Leibstein of Berlin, who has been exploring in the northern part of the republic of Mexico for the last six months, was recently in the City of Mexico on his way back to Germany, writes the special correspondent of the New York Post. He was sent by the imperial bureau of ethnology to that country to investigate the report that in the mountains of Sonora there exist relics of a race unknown in any other part of the globe. Just how successful he was in this part of his work Dr. Leibstein will not say until he has made his report to his government. But he tells a remarkable story of other discoveries.

"I have no doubt that Sonora is the oldest inhabited part of this continent," he said. "I found in one place, in a mountain gorge, the remains of a road, broad and well defined and apparently paved at one time. I followed the road and came upon a vast mountain of debris, evidently the tailings of rich mines.

"There is little doubt that the era was brought out of the mountains by means of workings which may yet be discovered and that after the richer had been selected the poorer was thrown aside and formed this huge deposit. I made a rough assay of these tailings and found them far richer than the ore which is now obtained from some mines which are paying well.

"There are evidences that the persons who worked the mines were far more advanced in metallurgy than the old Spaniards or any of the races of whom we have any record as having inhabited the country. My statements may be doubted, but I am fully satisfied that the people who worked these old mines knew of the process of reduction now practiced and used steel in the works."

BRYAN'S CURE FOR ANARCHY.

Free Government, Springing as Directly as Possible from the People.

Mr. Bryan, in a recent issue of The Commotio, suggests this cure for anarchy:

"The suppression of anarchy is only a temporary relief. Stealing can and should be suppressed by law, but stealing cannot be eradicated until people are convinced that it is wrong to steal. So anarchy can and should be suppressed by law, but it cannot be entirely eradicated until all are convinced that anarchy is wrong. Free government, springing as directly as possible from the people and made as responsive as possible to their will, is the only permanent and complete cure for anarchy. The arbitrary governments of the old world have tried suppression, but have not succeeded. They have lessened anarchy just in proportion as they have extended civil liberty and participation in the government. Stern measures must be invoked for the suppression and punishment of every manifestation of anarchistic spirit, but beyond this remedy there must be education. All must be taught that government is an absolute necessity and that our form of government is the best ever devised. We can only bring absolute security to our public servants by making the government so just and so beneficent that every citizen will be willing to give his life, if need be, to preserve it to posterity."

WHITE HOUSE CHILDREN

Facts About Mrs. Roosevelt and Her Little Ones.

GIVES THEM PERSONAL ATTENTION

First Woman of the Land Did Not Hesitate to Scrub Necks of Two Who Did Not Suit—Not Above Darning Stockings of the Youngsters. Children Full of High Spirits.

Already Mrs. Roosevelt is an object of the most earnest attention, writes the Washington correspondent of the New York Press. It is agreed she has self poise and a gracious adaptation to her surroundings, and she is meeting the demands of her exalted station with a gentle suavity and the peculiarly graceful consideration afforded by a woman of tact and breeding.

An intimate friend says Mrs. Roosevelt would delight the good old Dutch housewives of New Amsterdam. Domestic tasks and maternal duties which would reveal the modern society woman are as natural to her as the quiet manner of greeting a guest or disposing of a duty.

She is said to look after the wardrobe of the members of her family, finds time to superintend the education of her children and when never omits a social obligation, although she does not seek pre-eminence as a society woman. It is said she is not above darning the stockings of the youngsters and, with a healthy and boisterous family of little ones such as hers, this would be no infrequent task.

The Roosevelt children are full of life and high spirits. No prank is too daring and no youthful game or exercise beneath their dignity. Their mother is with them as much as possible, and therefore she is often called upon to repair damages to clothing or else to hear abnormal bills for their youthful apparel.

The same friend says that to speak of Mrs. Roosevelt is to tell about her children. There are five of them—Theodore junior, fourteen, a sturdy lad, as much like his father as a little elephant resembles a big one. He has the same manners, a like taste for outdoor exercises and sports and looks the world in the face from an equally healthy and florid countenance. He wears glasses, like his father, and he sails in the same ready, frank way. Theodore junior accompanied his mother to Washington on the present journey. The other children were left under the care of their uncle, James Roosevelt, in Oyster Bay.

When Mrs. Roosevelt and her family came to Washington last March to attend the inaugural ceremonies, there was not room in the Cowles home to accommodate Vice President Roosevelt, his wife, five children and their nurses. Consequently friends took some of the youngsters as guests. On the morning of March 4, when all were marshaled to attend the official proceedings at the capitol, a mishap delayed the arrival of two of the children. The carriages were held at the Cowles residence for several minutes awaiting their appearance.

Upon their arrival Mrs. Roosevelt took the precaution to look them over and was not satisfied with the work of their temporary nurses. She made a sign to their regular nurse, who shortly appeared with a small soaped towel. Mrs. Roosevelt herself took this and, already having scrubbed their collars, gave each a good scrubbing and adjusted their backwear again in a very few minutes.

Observers say the little fellows did not appreciate this programme more kindly than children are wont, and they spluttered and made faces at the ordeal, but stood up to it like little men and did not betray the slightest inclination to cry or resist. Their behavior was old fashioned in its docility to maternal discipline. When her rapid labors were completed, Mrs. Roosevelt quietly gave her orders for the disposition of the family and resumed her position as calmly as if babies and holiday boys were no part of her cares in this world.

This little incident is characteristic of Mrs. Roosevelt. When necessary, she brings the youthful statesman to order without fuss or bother and does not ruffle herself or her guests. The Roosevelt children were vivacious and far from being curled darlings or little Lord Footstools. Only one nurse and a governess are provided for them. Their mother, however, is a host to herself as a maternal manager, and her commands are never disputed.

It is said that before meeting Mr. Roosevelt this home loving woman was never inclined to shun courtly attentions, but her conduct and example as a wife and mother are the admiration of her friends.

Drying Wood by Electricity.

Consul Mahin of Reichenburg sends the following description of a new method of quickly preparing wood for building and manufacturing purposes, taken from a local technical journal: The green wood is placed in a large wooden trough whose bottom is covered with a lead plate, which is connected with the positive pole of an electric battery. Covering the wood the negative pole. The wood is then subjected to a bath in a solution composed of 10 per cent rosin and 75 per cent soda. Under the influence of the electric current the sap is drawn out of the wood and rises to the surface, the solution being absorbed by the wood. The operation requires from five to eight hours. The wood is then allowed to dry for about two weeks, when it is ready for use, or the drying can be done artificially in a much shorter time.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Lancaster Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Wm. M. Toll of Magic Results Brought About in Buffalo, Itching, Bleeding Skin Troubles by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. Chase's Ointment draws more praise from ministers, physicians and lawyers than any other medicine in the world. It is endorsed by every profession.

Extracts from their Letters.

Rev. W. N. Edwards, Baptist minister, 103 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

For over fifteen years the itching piles have been a source of constant annoyance to me and frequently, too, the suffering has become intense. At times there was bleeding and the itching and burning was beyond endurance. The results I have been magical and the benefits lasting. I feel it a duty to fellow sufferers to recommend it.

Rev. J. N. Van Natter, Methodist minister, 103 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

My wife and I have been afflicted with piles and the itching and burning was beyond endurance. The results I have been magical and the benefits lasting. I feel it a duty to fellow sufferers to recommend it.

Rev. J. N. Van Natter, Methodist minister, 103 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

MAURICE GRAU'S PLANS

Impresario Tells of Singers Engaged For Coming Season.

"MANEU" IS TO BE PRODUCED.

Well Known Operatic Manager Has Secured Rights to Paderewski's Opera and Will Place It in the Repertory—Various Roles of Singers—Itinerary of the Tour.

The New York Herald's European edition publishes the following under the date of Sept. 18:

One of the busiest men in the French capital is Mr. Maurice Grau, who, after close upon four months' hard "star" hunting in the European capitals, has just completed arrangements for his great annual operatic tour in the United States.

"All's settled," he said to the correspondent, "and I have now only to pack up my trunks and 'go.' I am off to Cherbourg and with my family shall sail for New York on the Kronprinz Wilhelm."

Despite the great loss which the United States has sustained by the assassination of its president, which not only I, but every musician, can truly say, of my country deeply deploring, I think that we are going to have a grand season.

I am naturally going to repeat the standard repertoire and produce some novelties. Among the novelties will be Paderewski's new opera "Maneu," "Messiah" and perhaps "Thais." The repertoire will consist principally of "Gloconda," "Il Ballo in Maschera," "Ernani," "Elixir d'Amore," "La Navarraise," "Mignon" and "Les Huguenots," a great feature will be that Miss Sibyl Sanderson will sing for the first time in "Thais." She has not been to America for seven or eight years and is going to be heard in California, her home, where as yet she has never sung in public.

As I have already said, I have been doing the principal capitals. I had an interesting week in London, where I heard Paderewski's "Maneu" for the first time. The work pleased me greatly. I had practically made all the arrangements for its production in America when the author made several exacting conditions, such as the engagement of his tenor, who had created the title role and sung it in most of the great cities on this side of the Atlantic.

At the finish I agreed to take him on, but as to who is to play the leading role I shall only settle that on my arrival on the other side. Miss Sibyl Sanderson was to have left by the Champagne on Saturday, but as she was suffering from a swollen face her passage has been transferred to the "Avalon."

As to the artists engaged, following is the list: Soprano, Mme. Suzanne Adams, Mme. Hagenauer, Mme. Breval, Mme. Calve, Mme. Baines, Mme. Gaski, Mme. Mayrath, Mme. Rouss, Mme. Delos, Miss Sibyl Sanderson, Mme. Sembrich, Ermenegildo Schuff, Mme. Terina and Mme. Van Cantwerp.

Contraltos—Miss Carrie Bradwell, Mme. Louise Hesser and Mme. Schumann-Benck.

Tenors—M. Alvarez, M. Handrowski, M. Bars, M. Van Dyck, Herr Dippel, M. Gilbert, M. de Marchi, M. Reiss, M. Salgme and M. Vanni.

Baritone—Mr. Bispham, Signor Campanini, M. de Cler, M. Dufreche, M. Gilbert, Herr Mulhmann, Herr Van Rooy, Signor Scotti and Signor Viviani.

Basses—M. Blass, M. Placou, M. Pirelli, M. de Segura and M. Edouard de Reszke.

The dates of sailing of the various singers and some of the operas in which they may take part are as follows: Mme. Breval leaves about Jan. 20 to sing in "Tosca" and Brannhilde in "Die Walkure"; Mme. Calve by the Champagne Sept. 21 for "Messaline" and Valentine in "Les Huguenots"; Mme. Baines-Story by the Philadelphia Sept. 21 for "Trovatore"; Mme. Gaski by the Kronprinz Wilhelm Oct. 15 to sing Valentine; Miss Sibyl Sanderson by the Savoye Sept. 28 for "Manon," "Romeo et Juliette" and perhaps "Thais"; Mme. Sembrich by the Anguste Victoria Sept. 27 for "Ernani," "Elixir d'Amore" and Elsa in "Lohengrin"; and Ermenegildo Schuff by the Philadelphia Sept. 24 to sing Micaela in "Carmen" and Mme. Terina by the Columbia Oct. 3 for "Gloconda" and "Il Ballo in Maschera."

M. Alvarez will sail by the Savoye Dec. 14 to sing in "Le Cid," "Salammbô," "Otello" and "L'Africaine"; M. Van Dyck by the Zealand, from Antwerp, Oct. 14, for Siegfried in "Götterdämmerung" and M. de Marchi by the Champagne Sept. 21 for the entire Italian repertory—on his first visit; M. Salgme by the Champagne Sept. 21 for "Manon," "Elixir d'Amore" and "La Bohème"; M. Bispham by the Lucania Oct. 4 for several new roles; Signor Campanini, who is now in America, for "Il Ballo in Maschera"; Signor Scotti by the St. Paul Oct. 10 for Iago, "Gloconda" and "Ernani"; Herr Van Rooy by the Wilhelm der Grosse Oct. 4 for Telramunde in "Lohengrin"; M. Placou by the Wilhelm der Grosse Oct. 4 for "Thais" and "Gloconda"; M. Edouard de Reszke by the St. Paul Oct. 19 for Votan in "Die Walkure" and "Ernani."

I hope," said Mr. Grau, continuing, "to give a Verdi cycle consisting of 'Traviata,' 'Rigoletto,' 'Trovatore,' 'Ernani,' 'Il Ballo in Maschera,' 'Aida' and 'Otello.' My conductors will be Mr. Walter Damrosch, M. Fien and Signor Sepilli."

As to the itinerary, the New York season will open at Christmas or thereabout, but long before that our outside circuit will have been running.

On Oct. 7 we open at Albany and

BAR TO CONSUMPTIVES

Governor Murphy of Arizona Would Segregate All Victims.

WILL RECOMMEND CERTAIN LAWS.

Plans to Follow Tuberculosis Congress' Advice—His Idea is That Patients Should Be Required to Live in Sanatoriums and in the Open Air of the Plains.

Governor N. O. Murphy of Arizona is perhaps the first executive of America to take steps for legislation along the lines suggested by the recent tuberculosis congress in London, says a Washington dispatch to the St. Louis Republic.

The principal recommendations, which urged the separation of patients and protested against public expectation, holding that the curative of the disease were thus conveyed by inhalation to the unaffected, are to be followed by legislation in Arizona if the recommendations of Governor Murphy to be made at the ensuing session of the territorial legislature are made into a law.

Governor Murphy, who was formerly delegate from Arizona to congress, states that, while his recommendation would be a radical measure in the matter of controlling the actions and the lives of consumptives, he believes nevertheless that the time is opportune to raise the question in an official way, so far as the territory of Arizona is concerned, to the extent of passing a restrictive measure regulating the limitations and residence of consumptives in an effort to prevent the spread of the disease by communication. No legislation is as yet in effect in the United States which directs us to where a consumptive may or may not reside.

There is considerable agitation in Arizona," said Governor Murphy, "on the question of the treatment of the thousands of persons afflicted with consumption who have come to live with us because of the salubrious of our climate and the wonderful effect the dry air of the desert has upon the lungs of these who do not postpone their attempts for relief until they are in the helpless stages of the disease."

We do not desire to shut out consumptives from the privilege of coming to us in an effort to get well, but my object is to prevent their promiscuous intermingling with the well. While I have as yet given no intimation of my intention I will now say that it is my purpose to recommend the creation under legislative authority of a territorial board of health, investing its officers with full power to quarantine and segregate persons coming into the territory afflicted with consumption.

Proceeding along the lines of the power of the boards of health of the various states in quarantining against any dangerous contagious diseases.

Of course I know that this law if passed would be of the most vital importance to the great army of those afflicted with consumption, and it is legislation which would arouse much discussion as to its merits and ultimate effects. But there are two sides to the question. I think our people are entitled to some sort of protection from contagion, at least on an equality with the patient, who is in turn entitled to exhaust all reasonable efforts to get well. It would be inhuman to deny them this chance, but I shall recommend that a law be passed prohibiting them from living in hotels and boarding houses with well people and requiring them to live upon the desert in such places or sanitariums to be provided and in localities where the possibility of contagion will be as greatly reduced as the circumstances permit.

The recent declaration of the tuberculosis congress in London as to the means of contagion has affirmed the need of isolation and control in communities where there are a great many consumptives. The newly created board would have power to examine the arrivals in the territory in the trains and determine whether they are proper subjects for control. Persons coming to us would be obliged to obey these directions or pass out of the territory. Persons afflicted with consumption, especially those in the last stages, who flock to one center are a great menace to the inhabitants and cannot be said to be desirable companions for close association."

Governor Murphy further says that it is his intention to recommend that a law be passed prohibiting the issuing of a marriage license to persons afflicted with incurable diseases and that a proper board of physicians be constituted to determine upon the question whether such persons would be permitted a license to wed in his territory.

May Sell Tea With a Wink. At an old settlers' picnic near Goldsmith the other day Herman Salter had a wagon load of mysterious looking half pint bottles in an adjoining grove, says a dispatch from Kokomo, Ind., to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. He carried samples among the crowd, saying, with a wink, that he had a fine article of "tea." The bottles sold like hot cakes, and his load was soon disposed of, some of the thirsty ones buying three and four bottles. When the purchasers went to secluded spots to sample the liquor, they were disgusted by the discovery that it was really tea and not whisky, as they supposed. The tricky vender was arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses, but was acquitted, the magistrate holding that the goods were as represented, that the only deception was in the wink and that winking was not an indictable offense.

SOLDIER'S PRIZE A PORTRAIT. A lithograph portrait of the late President McKinley with two bullet holes through it is the highly prized possession of Company D of the Twelfth regiment, national guard, of Williamsport, Pa.

A peculiar coincidence is connected with the portrait. About a year ago, according to the Philadelphia Press, the picture was hung in the little house occupied by Sergeant John A. Bond, range master at the battalion rifle range on the south side. When the range was closed last fall, the picture was allowed to remain hanging on the wall of the house.

When the house was opened this spring, it was found that somebody had fired three shots from a revolver through the door. Two of the bullets had passed through the president's portrait, one having struck it in the right breast and the other a little lower down. The picture will be framed and hung in the armory of Company D.

About the Latest Silks. Wonderful colorings and designs are appearing in the new silks, the manufacturers seeming to have counted confidently on increasing popularity for the Louis XVI. and Louis XV. modes, says the Chicago News. These exquisite brocades and stripes will make stunning coats, and the beautiful pompadour silks will be used more than ever as foundation for chiffon, mousseline and other semitransparent materials.

New Explosive Discovered. Chemical Professor Dobrowsky of St. Petersburg has discovered a powerful explosive which is absolutely safe to handle, since the explosion only occurs upon ignition and after a small quantity of sulphuric acid is poured on the explosive.

Mrs. Ellen Ripley, Chaplain Ladies Aid, Grand Army of the Republic, No. 7, 222 10th Ave., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn., Strongly Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound cured me of ulceration of the womb, and getting such a complete cure I felt that the medicine had genuine merit and was well worth recommending to other sick women."

"For fifteen years I have been your friend. I have never written you before, but I have advised hundreds of women to take your medicine, in fact it is the only real reliable remedy I know of for a sick woman."

"I have not yet found a case of ovarian or womb trouble which has not been relieved or cured by the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"You have brought health to hundreds of women in Minneapolis as you have no doubt to others over the country."—MRS. ELLEN RIPLEY.

Case of Violent Insanity

So the Patient

Is Hurried Off to the Toledo Asylum.

The Young Man Tore Up His Clothes and Had to be Shacked.

Peter Shoemaker Brought to Jail from Richland Township - Mind Affected by President's Assassination.

The worst case of insanity that Sheriff Bogart and his assistants have had to handle during his term of office, if not in the history of the county, is that of Peter Shoemaker, the 29-year-old son of John Shoemaker of Richland township.

The young man first gave signs of mental disarrangements about two weeks ago and has been growing worse every day until he was at last found to be developing a mania dangerous to those about him, and it was absolutely necessary to have him put where he could neither harm himself or others. He was brought to Lima yesterday and those in charge of him had their hands full.

Once in jail he raved so wildly and became so desperate that it was found necessary to shackle him hand and foot, and two guards watched over him all the night through. He tore off every stitch of clothing and when necessary to handle him he taxed the strength of several of the able bodied persons who loaned their assistance. It was impossible to bring him into court at the inquest and the doctors made their examination in the jail.

There was no insanity in the family to trace the cause to, and it is the belief of those who attended him, that a mild attack of insanity was aggravated by the recent assassination of the President. He scribbled off some crude sentences when in his quiet moments and one of them read that the country was safe now that Roosevelt was in power.

The unfortunate fellow was adjudged insane and today at noon was taken to the asylum at Toledo.

Notes.

Judge Cunningham held court at Paulding yesterday.

The sheriff and his deputies are busy issuing subpoenas for those who will be summoned to appear before the grand jury next week. The list is a lengthy one and insures a long session.

Deputy Clerk Charles Graham has charge of a school exhibit at the fair grounds which will be one of the interesting features tomorrow.

Served His Time.

"Buck" Pearson who was serving time in jail for petty larceny was released today by order of the commissioners.

A Breath of Freedom.

Benjamin Kennedy, confined in jail on account of an attack made on his wife in which he threatened to use a razor, had about two minutes of freedom today when he was released from jail. Just as he walked out a peace warrant was served on him and he found himself again a prisoner. His wife began proceedings for a divorce since he has been in jail, and as she has reason to fear him, she took this proceeding to protect herself. Kennedy will now have to furnish bond before he again breathes pure air.

To the Blind Asylum.

Albert Haines, twenty-five years of age, who is totally blind, was taken to the Columbus asylum today, Rev. Clarence Mitchell, former pastor of the south side Christian church, having succeeded in getting him admitted.

THE ELKS

Will Open the Season With a Big Jolly Reunion.

Thursday evening the local lodge of Elks will hold its first meeting of the regular winter series and the attendance of every member of the lodge is desired. After the regular lodge session an informal social session will be held in honor of the appointment of Bro. J. W. Mowen as a district deputy. During the lodge session Mr. Mowen will submit his report from the grand lodge meeting. The winter in Elksdom promises to be a lively one and none of the members should miss the opening event Thursday night.

Imperial Tea Company Soon to Begin Business.

Messrs. Schlenkert and Ziegler Have Rented Large Room in Donze Block.

A new business house that promises to be a factor in the local merchantile world has rented the double room in the Donze block now occupied by the Broker Clothing Co., and will occupy it in a short time with a modern tea, coffee and spice house. The proprietors will be Messrs. H. C. Schlenkert and C. W. Ziegler, who have been the local agents for some time of the Grand Union Tea Co., of New York, but who have decided to go into business for themselves under the name of the Imperial Tea Co. Both have been connected with the tea and coffee trade for many years and familiar with the business in all its details. Their opening order was placed with Mr. H. R. Slocum representative of the Johnson Coffee Co., of New York, the largest roasters in the east. Until they can move into their permanent quarters they can be found in the Collins block west of the square.

Nuptial High Mass Celebrated at St. Rose Church This Morning.

The Bride and Groom Leave Tonight for an Extended Trip Through the East—A Brilliant Wedding.

A pretty church wedding was witnessed by a large concourse of people at St. Rose church this morning, when at 8:30 o'clock the appointed hour for the nuptial event, Mr. P. H. Kelly and Miss Catherine Meehan were joined in holy wedlock. Rev. Frederick Rupert, pastor of St. John's congregation, celebrated nuptial high mass and performed the sacred ceremony according to the beautiful ritual of the church. The bride was clad in a tan colored traveling suit and carried bride's roses. The couple had no attendants. During the celebration of the mass the bridal couple occupied chairs inside the chancel rail.

At the conclusion of the services at the church the happy couple were driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meehan, 110 south Central avenue, where a wedding breakfast was enjoyed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, who extended to them their well wishes and congratulations. The bride and groom received a large display of beautiful wedding presents, which testify to their popularity.

The groom is one of Lima's successful young business men, having for a number of years carried on an extensive bottling establishment in the Kelly block at Main street and Grand avenue. His bride is a very estimable young lady of the south side, who is universally esteemed by her large number of friends throughout the city. They will leave tonight over the Erie at 9:02 for an extended eastern trip, embracing Buffalo and the Pan-American, New York city, Philadelphia and a trip down the St. Lawrence and upon their return to this city they will be at home to their friends after November 1. In a neatly furnished home at 787 north Main street, which was purchased by the groom prior to his marriage. Among the out of town guests at the wedding today, were the groom's cousin, Mr. Wm. Thomas and wife and daughter, Miss Emma Thomas, of Toledo. The Times-Democrat join their many friends in extending to them wishes for a life of happiness and good fortune.

Using a Heavy Police Club Gets the Patrolman Into Trouble.

Mayor Takes the Initiative in This Case and Does Not Wait for the City Council to Take Action.

The police committee of the city council has another case to investigate. In the recent cases of officers Harley and Cuddy the council was forced to take the initiative and demand of the Mayor that the men who were accused of certain violations of police discipline be suspended and even then the mayor refused to suspend the men until specific charges had been prepared and copies of them served on him and the accused. In the new case it is different. The mayor has taken the initiative and has suspended an officer without waiting for the council to either request his suspension or file specific charges. At the meeting of the city council last night Mayor McComb reported having suspended patrolman Jake Shook for striking Hank O'Neil with his club several days ago, Mr. O'Neil having been severely injured by the blow. The council referred the case to the police committee and the matter will be investigated. The time for the meeting of the police committee has not been decided upon.

The matter of the suspension of officer Shook was the most important matter taken up by the council last night. It was understood that Mayor McComb would report the appointment of two men to fill the vacancies of the police force that were occasioned by the dismissal of officers Harley and Cuddy, but no such report was made by the mayor.

Petition to have a light placed on south Main street opposite St. John's church was received and the request was granted.

Petition relative to the improvement of Boyer street was referred to the street committee, engineer and solicitor.

Protest against the removal of light from North and Charles streets was referred to the light committee.

Report of the paving committee, recommending that contract for the paving of Brice and Richie avenues be awarded to the Cleveland Trinidad Paving Co. was adopted.

Report of sidewalk committee of the sale of certain walks on west Kibby street was adopted.

Engineer was instructed to prepare specifications for the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue.

The clerk reported that he had received no bids for the McKibben street paving bonds. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

Protests from Matilda Behr, J. C. Foster and others against excessive improvement assessments were referred to the solicitor.

Mr. Shannahan asked why property owners were required to pay six per cent penalty on deferred payments for street improvements when the improvement bonds only drew 3 1/2 per cent interest. The solicitor said the law specified that 6 per cent should be paid.

Chairman Overly of the bridge committee, read specifications for a new bridge on east North street, same to be 80 feet long and 40 feet wide, including walks on each side, roadway to be 26 feet. The estimated cost is $2,383.

The specifications were adopted.

Mr. McCauley moved that all the alleys on McKibben street east of Jefferson street be made public alleys and cost of paving be paid by the city.

Solicitor said it would be necessary to replat and re-dedicate the property. The matter was referred to the solicitor, engineer and street committee.

FIRST DOOR SOUTH OF COURT HOUSE.

Just one year ago we laid the foundation of what promises to become the most successful cloak business in the city. Projected along lines peculiarly our own, radically different from methods generally in vogue, this business exceeded our fondest expectations the first season. It was not accidental, but the inevitable result of positively unmatched values, and a determination not to carry over from one season to another a single garment. Every garment in this department is of the very latest style and of this season's manufacture. We could not talk you into buying a last season's garment were you ever so poorly posted as to style—For we haven't any to show you. The question, "How much will a garment bring?" is never allowed to arise; but the question, "How low can we sell it?" always fixes the price. Had the former question been permitted, the prices in many cases would be fully double the prices made. These and other methods have caused this house to grow rapidly in the confidence of the people.

Who Have Passed Life's Meridian

Are Coe and Carpenter of the Western Ohio.

They Usually Work Together in the Taking Up of Right of Way for the Pomeroy-Mandelbaum Syndicate.

Accompanied by two excellent half-toned illustrations of Messrs. F. D. Carpenter and L. M. Coe, the Cleveland Leader publishes the following concerning those two promoters of the Western Ohio Railway:

"Associated with President Albert E. Atkins, of the Western Ohio Railway Company, and other members of the Pomeroy-Mandelbaum syndicate, are two men who are veterans in the electric traction business. They are L. M. Coe and F. D. Carpenter. They are generally referred to as 'Coe and Carpenter' wherever they go. As a rule they work together for franchise or right-of-way, and where one is seen the other is usually to be found near at hand.

Messrs. Coe and Carpenter are men who have passed the meridian of life, but are as lively as school boys, and he is a smooth right-of-way man who can get ahead of the partners. The two men have been with the Pomeroy and Mandelbaum people ever since they commenced building electric railways. Messrs. Coe and Carpenter secured the right of way on every foot of land between Cleveland and Elyria and built the electric line between Cleveland and Chagrin Falls.

For the first time in their suburban railway operations the almost inseparable partners are now separated. Mr. Coe is working on the extensions of the Cleveland, Elyria & Western Railway, the right of way of which was secured by the partners. Personally the two are genial men and have a host of friends.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT SMARTLY DRESSED MEN WILL WEAR THIS SEASON, ASK TO SEE STEIN-BLOCH CLOTHES.

The Most Convincing Thing

that we could do that would tend to induce you to buy Stein-Bloch Clothes, would be to introduce you to a man who has worn them. We cannot command the language with which to tell you how good these clothes are. The makers attach THIS label beneath the coat collars of their coats, and they are so proud of their name and reputation, that not the slightest defect either of style, fabric or tailoring, is permitted to enter any part of their productions. You don't know how cheap

are, until you have worn them. There are no such clothes offered by any other clothes-makers in the world, though their prices are about the same as those asked for so-called fine clothing. Their quality can only be matched by a few of the high-class custom tailors. Why dally with the unknown quantity of doubtful make when you can buy the "real thing"?
